Logos Evangelical Seminary—Overview

With the spirit to “Attempt great things for God, rescue millions of souls,” Logos Evangelical Seminary seeks to educate and impact students for a lifetime of faithful and fruitful ministry. As the first fully accredited Asian seminary by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS) and the WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC), Logos provides a range of academic and degree programs mainly in Chinese with a few elective English courses that emphasize the integration of the Bible, theology, practice and cultures to equip servants for the Body of Christ worldwide.

Logos’ faculty oversees a curriculum that emphasizes not only the academic, but the practical side of theology. With a deep commitment to its mission coupled with a program curriculum based on in-depth theological understanding and Biblical worldview, Logos serves to provide a strong and stimulating learning environment. Logos’ programs are designed to foster growth and development in four key areas that, when in balance, will serve them well for the rest of their lives. The four areas include: spiritual formation, theological understanding, ministry skills, and Biblical life-style. In addition, students at Logos gain invaluable insight and wisdom from the close relationships they develop with the faculty and their godly living.

The students who come to Logos are from different backgrounds, denominations and from all over the world. They are welcomed by staff and faculty, who likewise come from diverse backgrounds and represent various denominations. Once here, students find an inviting wireless campus with modern facilities, including a library that houses one of the largest collections of Chinese theological books in North America. Logos also provides comfortable and convenient wireless living accommodations for singles and families.

To this date, more than 600 graduates of Logos are serving in pastoral ministries, cross-cultural missions, theological education and para-church organizations in more than 20 countries around the world. Having a close relationship with the seminary, the alumni continue to fulfill Logos’ mission to “spread the gospel to bring people to Christ to make disciples and establish churches.”

The seminary expectation for students' conduct and life is higher than the standards set by the society. Students are expected to comply with the law, respect proper constitutional authority and obey seminary policies, rules and regulations. Unacceptable conduct is defined as an action or behavior that is contrary to the best interest of a fellow student or students, the faculty or staff, the seminary, or the teaching/learning process.

In light of the spirit of Galatians 6:1-2, it is the intent of the Student Conduct Committee to exercise genuine Christian concern in its dealings with students and that its actions would result in learning, personal growth, and professional development. The long term welfare of the student, the seminary community and the churches should be the primary concerns of the committee's decision process.

In order to make this a truly responsible and redemptive community, it is expected that all students, faculty and staff will jointly accept the responsibility of reporting such actions as may be unacceptable, unethical, or detrimental to a Christian academic community or to the ministries that they serve.

Any questionable actions may be reported to the Student Development Department directly. The Dean of Students will make necessary inquiries or investigation into the matter promptly. This process may consist of personal conversation with all the parties involved to determine if the matter has merit or if they can be disposed by mutual consent on a basis acceptable to all parties. If the matter cannot be resolved, the Dean of Students will make a report to the Student Conduct Committee, along with documents submitted to the Dean by the student and the parties involved.

The Student Conduct Committee may wish to meet with the student and the involved parties to further investigate the case. The Committee will then discuss the case based on the facts collected by the Dean of Students in a thorough and careful manner. The committee will decide whether the student has been in violation of seminary regulations, standards of conduct in any way that is contrary to the catalog or that is set forth in the student handbook. If warranted, the Student Conduct Committee shall make a report of the matter to the President's Council of the seminary.

The Dean of Students, as chairman of the committee, will notify the student personally and in writing of the committee's decision as well as any disciplinary action recommended. The student may choose either to accept the committee's determination and decision in the case or the student may choose to appeal the decision to the President's office. The appeal must be filed within two (2) weeks after receiving the written decision.

In the event of an appeal, the case will be discussed and reviewed by the President's Council. The student will have the opportunity to submit written comments to the President's Council for consideration. In all cases, the final decision on the appeal shall rest with the President's Council. When an appeal is made, the case will be reviewed and a decision reached as quickly as possible, normally within thirty (30) days.

The decision of the Executive Committee is final. Both the faculty members and the students shall submit to the decision of the President's Council and seek the peace of the institution.

Any disciplinary action toward the involved student shall be reported to the faculty meeting. A written report of disciplinary hearing proceedings, determination, and appeal, if any, will be made and kept on file in the Student Development Department.
