David Doong (Ph.D. in Theology, Fuller) is currently the pastor of Shi-Pai Friendship Presbyterian Church in Taipei, and has been appointed to be the next general secretary of CCCOWE (Chinese Coordination Center of World Evangelism) starting in August, 2021. He is a pastor (10 years in U.S. ministering to Chinese international students, young professionals, and 2nd generation Chinese Americans; 2 years in Taiwan), an adjunct professor in various seminaries, and the author of "Practical Theology as Discipleship". His passion is to be a bridge builder between different generations, cultures, and disciplines, exploring faithful ministry practices in today's pluralistic world dominated by market economy and ideological conflicts.
